It has helped me already by popping up, when a customer of mine 'checks out'. The 'check out' feature that came with the program was totally useless. This is the first I have ever seen that has a 'check out' feature that actually works, and it works well. I like the ability to be able to add my own backgrounds to my pop up forms. Summary: Pros Cons Easy to use, especially with the wizards provided Initial setup was a little annoying, but with a little elbow grease, you can get it to work quickly Like the ability to add your own backgrounds The ability to add custom messages to the pop ups is a great feature Users have received the message and been redirected to the web page they were sent from a pop up FAQ: This is a great looking, clean, easy to use program.
